

PORT OF ANACORTES

Resolution No. 1361

March 19, 2020

A Resolution of the Commission of the Port of Anacortes declaring a local emergency and supplementing Port Resolution No. 1355, authorizing emergency powers and delegating authority to the Executive Director.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, novel Coronavirus COVID-19, a respiratory disease that can result in serious illness or death, is caused by a new strain of coronavirus that had not been previously identified in humans and has proven it can easily spread from person to person; and,

WHEREAS, the U.S. Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has identified a potential public health threat posed by COVID-19 both globally and within the United States, including within Washington State; and,

WHEREAS, there are documented cases of COVID-19, including deaths caused thereby, within Washington State; and,

WHEREAS, the Washington State Department of Health has confirmed the person-to-person spread of COVID-19 and is finding an increasing risk of exposure and infection to the general public due to its potential to spread quickly; and,

WHEREAS, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services declared a public health emergency for COVID-19 on January 31, 2020; and,

WHEREAS, Washington State Governor Jay Inslee proclaimed a public health emergency for COVID-19 on February 29, 2020; and,

WHEREAS, the Skagit County Board of Commissioners declared a public health emergency regarding COVID-19 on March 10, 2020; and,

WHEREAS, the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a global pandemic on March 11, 2020; and,

WHEREAS, the President of the United States declared public national emergency relating to COVID-19 on March 13, 2020; and,

WHEREAS, the Port Commission held a Regular Meeting of the Commission on March 19, 2020 at 7:00 P.M. to be conducted by conference call and said meeting was noticed as required by RCW 42.30, and specifically RCW 42.30.080; and

WHEREAS, there is an emergency present which necessitates this Resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT DECLARED BY THE COMMISSION OF THE PORT OF ANACORTES:

1. Proclamation. The Commission of the Port of Anacortes hereby and expressly finds and declares, based upon the Recitals above, which are expressly adopted herein, that COVID-19 is a civil public health emergency that:

A. Demands immediate action to preserve public health, protect life, protect public property, or to provide relief to any stricken neighborhood overtaken by such occurrences; and

B. Could, if unattended, seriously affect the safety, health, or welfare of a substantial number of citizens of the Port's district, or preclude the operation or use of essential public services and facilities with such magnitude or severity as to necessitate seeking state, county, or other supplementation of local efforts or resources exerted or utilized in alleviating the danger, damage, suffering or hardship faced.

2. Authority. This Resolution Declaring a Local Emergency and Delegating Authority ("Resolution") authorizes the Executive Director to exercise such emergency powers as may be lawful under applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, or the Port's policies, and necessary, including by way of example and not limitation: general port powers under Title 53, RCW, RCW 53.12.270 (Delegation of powers to managing official), RCW 39.04.280(3) for emergency procurement, and Chapter 39. 28 RCW (Emergency Public Works). Effective upon signature hereto and as further detailed in Section 3 below, the Executive Director is authorized to exercise such lawful authority through the use and direction of Port personnel, services, equipment and such additional acts as the Executive Director may find necessary in his or her sole discretion to properly and safely manage this emergency.

3. Powers. In order to properly delegate and authorize the Executive Director to prepare for, address, manage, prevent, respond to, and remediate this emergency situation, the Executive Director shall have all necessary powers to do the following, which is provided for example and not limitation: Make necessary rules and regulations reasonably related to the emergency, to obtain supplies, equipment, personal property, professional, procured or technical services, etc. (including selecting and awarding such contracts as necessary), such public works as defined by RCW 39.04.010, to authorize overtime and/or extended leave for personnel, to requisition personnel and material, obtain emergency funding and permitting through federal, state and local agencies, amend leases or agreements to respond to this emergency, and take such other lawful acts as may be necessary and reasonably related to the emergency situation declared hereunder.

3.1 The foregoing powers and authorities are to be read consistent with the Port's existing Delegation of Authority- Resolution No. 1355; however, if there is a conflict between the Delegation of Authority- Resolution No. 1355 and this Resolution, this Resolution shall control.

3.2 If the Executive Director exercises any powers or authorities delegated under this Resolution, the Executive Director shall report such exercise to the Commission at the next regular Commission meeting with explanation as to why it was necessary to take such action under this Resolution to meet the emergency situation articulated herein. If required by law, the Commission shall take such action in an open session to ratify the Executive Director's action(s) hereunder.

4. Termination. This Resolution shall continue in full force and effect until terminated by law or by further Resolution and shall be reviewed as a regular agenda item on the Commission's agenda until such time as this Resolution is terminated.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Port Commission of the Port of Anacortes in open session on the 19th day of March, 2020 and duly authenticated by the signatures of the Commissioners voting in favor thereof.
